

Revision Fortune Tellers

Most folk know how to make fortune tellers, and most teachers will have had to confiscate their share over the years - so why not use them in a positive way?

A fun starter activity for revision classes. Students can work in pairs or small groups to play and test each other on the questions inside the fortune teller. Questions might be to explain, list, name information.

Even better if students make their own!

